FOR USE ON

ACTIVE SERVICE.

ALL RANKS.

"REMEMBER—Never discuss military, naval, or air matters in public or with any stranger, no matter to what nationality he or she may belong.

"The enemy wants information about you, your unit, your destination. He will do his utmost to discover it.

"Keep him in the dark. Gossip on military subjects is highly dangerous to the country, whereas secrecy leads to success.

"BE ON YOUR GUARD and report any suspicious individual."

[A.B. 64/327, Part 1.

Soldier's Service Book.

Instructions to Soldier.

1. You will be held personally responsible for the safe custody of this book.
2. You will always carry the book on your person.
3. You must produce the book whenever called upon to do so by a competent authority, civil or military.
4. You must not alter or make an entry in the book, and disobedience of this order will be treated as a serious offence.
5. Should you consider that any entry in the book is lacking or incorrect, or should you lose the book, you will report the matter to your immediate military superior.
6. You will be permitted to retain the book after discharge as a record of your service in the Army, but should you lose the book after discharge it cannot be replaced.
7. No entry is to be made which gives any indication of your unit.

Rules for the Soldier's Guidance.

1. Conduct yourself on all occasions as a soldier and a gentleman.

2. Be courteous and polite to all strangers, and remember that by your actions not only will you be judged but you will reflect credit or discredit on your regiment and your native country.

3. Obey all orders cheerfully and avoid bad language and "grousing," both of which create a bad influence amongst your comrades. If you have a genuine complaint to make, submit it to your immediate commander. Disobedience of orders is a very serious offence.

4. Be most particular in regard to the cleanliness of your person, clothing, and equipment.

5. Be smart in your bearing and always correctly dressed when on leave.

6. Be conscientious in the performance of your duty. Carelessness in this respect when in the field may lead to loss of lives of your comrades.

7. Carefully observe the regulations regarding saluting of officers.

8. Keep yourself fit, avoid excesses of stimulants, and above all remember the very serious dangers of illicit sexual intercourse, against which you are specially warned in the interests of your future health and happiness.
