DOMINION OF NEW ZEALAND.

WELLINGTON, N.Z.

1st July, 1941.

Mrs. B. Jones,
50, Morton St.,
INVERCARGILL.

Dear Mrs. Jones,

I notice with deep regret that your son, Private Alan Jones, has been posted among those missing and wounded after the heroic fight put up by the New Zealand Expeditionary Force in the Mediterranean and the Middle East.

I can assure you that every effort is being made to check the possible whereabouts of those at present missing, and there is some comfort and hope that later information than that available when the present list was drawn up, may include your son's name as accounted for, and that by that time he may be on the road to recovery.

In your hour of great anxiety and sadness, I extend to you my deepest sympathy and sincerest goodwill.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Adam Hamilton
