

LEFT: Ruth Gürtler (centre), in the Maitis Cemetery, recounts her experiences, while Peter Schührrer and Keith Titmus look on.

RIGHT: The Titmus family meeting with Richard Brändle on his farm near Wäschenbeuren., from where he witnessed the crash of the Lancaster.

ABOVE: Reflecting on the spot in the meadow where Mervyn Davis was found on the morning of the 17th March 1945. From left to right: Keith Titmus; Peter Schührrer; Christine Lemm, and; Ruth Gürtler.

