LONDON, W.C. 2.

27th July 1917.

Dear Madam,

I am sorry to learn that your son 5/1293A Sgt. F. W. Godfrey, has contracted an illness while in the Service of his King and Empire in the greatest War the world has ever known; but I trust that your anxiety concerning him will be to some extent relieved by the knowledge that he is comfortably settled in hospital, where he will receive skilled attention and the most careful nursing. He has been admitted to the 2nd N.Z.
General Hospital, Walton-on-Thames, and the report is to the effect that he is suffering from Gas poisoning, but is improving satisfactorily.

I sincerely trust that he will soon be completely restored to health.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. E. A. Young,
Marefield Avenue,
Sarsefield Street,
Ponsonby, N.Z.
